DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

1. Claims 27-28, 44-45 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Schantz et al. (US 6086190).

Schantz et al. disclose a printing mechanism, comprising:

Referring to claims 27, 44:

a printhead having ink drop generators for selectively ejecting ink (FIG. 1, element 10); and an ink drop sensor for detecting ink droplets ejected from the ink drop generators (FIG. 1, element 14), comprising:

a conductive absorbent sensing element (FIG. 5a and column 7, lines 25-28); and a sensing amplifier (FIG. 1, element 16) coupled to the sensing element (FIG. 1, element 14), whereby the sensing element is imparted with an electrical stimulus when struck by at least one ink droplet ejected from the ink drop generator (column 3, lines 30-40).

Referring to claims 28, 45: wherein the sensing element is further configured to receive a biasing voltage which creates an electric field from the sensing element to the ink drop generator (column 3, lines 22-30 and FIG. 1, element 24).
